REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art of record, including the newly submitted prior art filed 5/13/05, does not suggest or disclose the claimed combination of apparatus elements (independent claims 1 and 17) or method steps (independent claim 12), most notably, the limitations inserted into all previously pending independent claims, by the amendment filed 5/13/05. As per new independent apparatus claim 23, the prior art does not suggest or disclose the claimed combination of elements, most notably the claimed:

... wherein the test module is configured to cause a first signal to be provided to the power supply to cause a first voltage to be provided to the component, wherein the test module is configured to cause a first test to be performed on the component subsequent to the first voltage being provided to the component and the operating system being booted, wherein the test module is configured to provide a second signal to the operating system to cause the component to be de-allocated from use by the operating system, and wherein the operating system is configured to provide a third signal to the test module in response to causing the component to be de-allocated from use by the operating system.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Patrick J. Assouad whose telephone number is 571-272-2210. The examiner can normally be reached on Tuesday-Friday, 6:30am-5:00pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Marc Hoff can be reached on 571-272-2216. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
